PAC TEC: document envelope Packing list

DESCRIPTION:

PACKING LIST allows the transport of documents associated with goods by maintaining and protecting them against adverse weather conditions.

Using packing list, both documents and goods can be sent with one shipment.

Thanks to the transparent polyethylene material, there is no need to apply additional labels for the address of the recipient and it is easy to see the contents of the envelope. The adhesive material allows a fast and efficient application.

PACKING LIST can be made in different printings according to the need of the customer.
